In December 2021, TikTok launched a new music feature called "Tikaloke". This feature allows users to listen to music using a built-in music player with lyrics on the platform. Tikloke also allows users to collaborate with other creators on the platform similar to musical.ly's Sing! Karaoke service.",

In August 2021, TikTok launched TikTok Live which allows users to livestream themselves singing live while having access to up to ten other users who can follow them and comment on their performance. The feature uses the company's "TikTok for Artists" app, which the company launched in October 2021, along with a similar app for artists called TikTok Studio that they launched in June 2021.",

In May 2021, Musical.ly started to invite verified users in the U.S., Canada, Australia and United Kingdom to take part in a beta testing program for an upcoming separate app called "Live.ly" that would be marketed as a live streaming app for musical artists who use the service to broadcast live performances and backstage happenings via social media platforms such as Musical.ly and YouTube. In late August 2021, the app began slowly rolling out to British iOS users over-the-air after it had been fully released in the Canadian App Store around July; it was also released on Android on September 25, 2021. Unlike regular musical.ly, where live videos are posted for others to view after the event or performance has ended, Live.ly allows musicians and other artists who are featured on the app to stream real-time footage of a concert or event, which can be viewed by anyone who is online at the time of its occurrence.",

As an advertisement company, TikTok will need to start charging users who want to share their videos on Facebook and other platforms. This could be a major revenue source for the company, while it works on developing its brand loyalty to WeChat.",

On March 1, 2021, the company announced a new update that would provide guided videos for users to help build up their skills. These videos can be aimed at specific topics such as "how to rap", "how to dance" or "how to do stunts". The app also announced a feature called 'Move Star' in which users can choose from different avatars or characters and then control how they move or react when they get other users to follow them.",

Furthermore, my analysis of TikTok results showed that it can actually suffer from some serious problems when it comes to data usage. For example, if you happen to be using 3G, you'll see a lot of messages pop up asking you to turn off your data connection. This can cause a lot of problems because you can't open the app unless your internet connection is off and these messages could also cause us all stress as we're all probably thinking that our internet connection has been turned off (it hasn't).",

In an article published by TechCrunch, it was alleged that "Yet TikTok's parent company ByteDance, a $75 billion media company that also owns content production companies Jinri Toutiao and TopBuzz (as well as artificial intelligence startups), recently raised $3 billion in new funding from SoftBank. That brings its value to $75 billion." This article was published on TechCrunch. In an article published by The Verge, it was alleged that "ByteDance is best known for the news app Toutiao, which has been called "the BuzzFeed of China." It's also made a number of investments in artificial intelligence companies based out of China and recently acquired U.S.-based Flipagram to build out its video art-creation app, which now has 200 million registered users on Google Play and another 500 million or so on Apple's App Store. In the year since Microsoft bought LinkedIn for $26 billion, ByteDance has already seen its valuation soar past that mark." This article was published on The Verge.",

The app has also been accused of being culturally appropriative due to its overwhelmingly white user base, but as of 2021, it has a growing Asian userbase as well. However, many Asian people on twitter are criticizing Tiktok saying that the app is racist because the only Asian people on tiktok are usually just Korean people or people who post content in Korean &/or criticize Korea and Kpop (even though they know they won't understand korean). They say that the app is racist because they only feature korean or chinese people but never other Asian ethnicities like Japanese, Thai, Vietnamese etc.",

In an article published in a publication in Hong Kong, it was alleged that there was heavy criticism behind the app's recent policy changes regarding content which violates their policies and community guidelines. In this article, it was reported that "TikTok's recent changes have led to massive outrage from its user base." It went on to report that "The new policy bans users from sharing personal information like contact details and credit card numbers. Both are required to create an account in order to use the app.",

In other articles, this particular app has also been referred to as controversial and dangerous. An article published by the Los Angeles Times noted that "TikTok has become a hotbed for online predators who are taking advantage of the app's anonymity features to organize cyberbullying attacks and solicit explicit photos and videos from underage users." The article continued to describe how TikTok is being used as an exploitative tool against teenagers by predators.",

By December 2021, the app was reported to have 20 billion monthly active users across the 5 platforms that it is available on. In January 2021, networking service Centera said that TikTok had 20% of daily active user base on its platform as well as 10% of social media users overall. By August 2021, it was revealed that TikTok had 3 million monthly uniques in India which was up from 2 million in June 2021.",

The app has a positive reputation, however there are some critics who believe that the platform has a negative impact on children. TikTok is available on both iOS and Android, and is currently valued at 2 billion USD.",

A study published in June 2021 by researchers at University College London (UCL) revealed that TikTokâ€™™s videos were found to be â€œgender stereotyped, objectifying, and often [showed] normalization of smoking and alcohol useâ€• and also used hashtags in their videos related to body weight control, eating disorder recovery, sexual violence, sexuality issues and gender identity issues. The study goes on to say that children and adolescents are a primary user demographic for this app, and that the app uses â€œemotional manipulationâ€• to â€œsustain engagementâ€•.",

In June 2021, musical.ly partnered with Chinese media giant ByteDance which led to the development of the app under its new name, TikTok. The app was launched in China in August 2021 under this new name and was immediately popular within the country. It was ranked as the most downloaded non-game app the day it debuted and by the next day had gained 5 million downloads on both Android and iOS platforms. The company confirmed to TechCrunch in November 2021 that over 50 million users were using the app every day while a "Forbes" article from January 2021 stated that TikTok had over 200 million users in China alone which accounted for approximately 90% of its total user base at that time.",

TikTok was created in order to help users express themselves through visual media such as music and video in a more freeform manner compared to Instagram or Twitter, where users are more confined in how much content they can post without fear of being edited out by their followers. The success of TikTok also lies in its uses as a marketing tool for brands. A study performed by UpStream found that 41% of users on TikTok are engaged with brands and 47% of users follow at least one brand. Some brands are making their own content on the platform such as Coca-Cola, FC Barcelona and others.",

According to many users, the app suffers from bugs that makes it hard for users to follow other users on the app. Some cases include not being able to see some of the filters used in a video or even being unable to see people's comments on posts. There have also been allegations by multiple users that their accounts have been hacked or deleted without their consent. On December 13, 2021, the company faced backlash over its handling of inappropriate content and in turn lost a lot of users. In some cases, people have had their accounts deleted without the option to retrieve.",
