Who would want to play a game like this? Nobody really I would think. It's just like Roblox in that you can buy stuff with fake money, but there is no value in either one of them. The real issue is that the developer(s) of both games are making a ton of money from people who don't care about winning or losing, they just want to have fun.

Players could also get banned by moderators for sending unwanted messages to other users. A moderator could then ban a player's account for spamming other accounts or trying to bypass chat filters. There are other forms of trolling which can be found on Roblox today.

I have been playing roblox games for about two years now. I started out with one of the mini-games (Hotel Tycoon 2). This game was very simple; all you had to do was buy a hotel and look after your guests. As time went on, my friends and I found a new game we wanted to play together (Battlefield 3). It was similar to Call of Duty with better graphics. We liked the game so much that we wanted to transfer our characters from Hotel Tycoon 2 into Battlefield 3. One night, my friend and I were playing on roblox and entered into a "lobby". In a lobby, you can find friends who are online playing games or creating new ones. We had two other friends join in and we started talking about which game we wanted to play together. The next day we all decided on Robloxian Life.

ROBLOX is the first game that was able to make an international monetary currency (Robux) that can be used for buying in-game items. [116] The next game to have a monetary currency was Habbo Hotel where they introduced Habbo Coins which are used for buying furniture, clothing, and accessories. [117]
